OVERVIEW

Adventure Geek invites you to Tikona Fort Trek

Tikona also known as Vitandgad, is the dominant hill fort in Maval in western India. It is located near Kamshet around 60 km from Pune. The village nearest to the fort is called Tikona-Peth. The 3500-foot high hill is pyramidal in shape and the name Tikona means "triangular". The small hamlet close to the fort is Tikona Peth. The fort's mammoth entrance is a special attraction.

Tikona Fort is a great trekking destination for adventurous Tourists it has a huge breathtaking view of Pawna Dam from the Summit and on the opposite side of Tikona Fort you can see Tung Fort and Lohgad Fort Trek.

Bedse Caves are built in the latest 1st century BC (circa 60 BC) – thus they belong to the oldest ones in Maharashtra. If compared with the later cave temples, Bedse Caves are much simpler and smaller, with fewer furnishings. It's part of a trilogy (Bedse, Karla, and Bhaje Caves)
